Intro: (F) (F7) (Bb) (C7) (F)

In Constant Sor (C7) row All through his (F) Days

(F) I am a man (F7) of constant (Bb) sorrow

I've seen (C7) trouble on my (F) days

(F) I bid farewell (F7) to old (Bb) Kentucky

The place where (C7) I was born and (F) raised

The place where (C7) he was born and (F) raised

(F) For six long years (F7) I've been in (Bb) trouble

No pleasure (C7) here on earth I've (F) found

(F) For in this world (F7) I'm bound to (Bb) ramble

I have no (C7) friends to help me (F) now

He has no (C7) friends to help him (F) now

(F) (F7) (Bb) (C7) (F)

(F) It's fair thee well, (F7) my old true (Bb) lover

I never ex (C7) pect to see you a (F) gain.

(F) For I'm bound to ride (F7) that northern (Bb) railroad

Perhaps I'll (C7) die upon this (F) train

Perhaps he'll (C7) die upon this (F) train

(F) (F7) (Bb) (C7) (F)

(F) Maybe your friends think (F7) I'm just a (Bb) stranger

My face you'll (C7) never see no (F) more

(F) But there is one promise (F7) that is (Bb) given

I'll meet you (C7) on God's golden (F) shore

He'll meet you (C7) on God's golden (F) shore
